Super Science Camp: Exploring the Natural World

June 28-July 2, Monday-Friday

1:00-4:00 p.m. $129

New Hartford Town Park Nature Room

Explore where science can take you with a hands-on tour of Planet Earth. You will learn about environmental issues, photography, orienteering, map skills, GPS, earth science, and the history of New York State, including what the glaciers left behind. Take a peek at what the world of science has to offer. Ages 10-14. Instructor: Jerry Roberts, Guide, Fort Noble Adirondack Adventures.

Go Green! Ecology Camp for Kids

August 2-6, Monday - Friday

August 9-13, Monday - Friday

9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. $129

New Hartford Town Park Nature Room

Learn what real-life ecology is all about. During this outdoor nature camp, you will learn the keys to identifying trees, flowers, animals, birds, insects, and other creepy crawlers. Find out what environmental scientists really do with hands-on exercises in the field and in the laboratory. Ages 10-14. Instructor: Joe Woodrow, Instructor, MVCC Center for Life and Health Sciences.

To register, call 792-5300 or visit mvcc.edu/cced after May 15.
